Summary

I am Kuncham Venkata Satya Manikanta, a Computer Science Engineer with a strong passion for web development and design. During my internship at Oasis Infobyte, I gained hands-on experience in building and optimizing web applications. I am proficient in Java, Python, C, C++, JavaScript, and Linux, which I have applied in various projects, including a Blood Bank Application, a College Management System, a Telegram bot for fetching Instagram profile pictures, a Student Management System, and a Vaccination Details Saver. I have a deep interest in Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning, Android Application Development, and Open Source Contribution, always eager to push my boundaries and enhance my technical expertise.
